Anasca Homes Sells Two More Homes at Villaggio in Lake Worth

Lake Worth, FL (Sept. 22nd 2009) – Anasca Homes sold two homes at Villaggio in Lake Worth, an indication that buyers are still seeking quality residences during this challenging economic climate.

This past summer, Barry and Carole Klein became the rightful owners of a two-bedroom plus/two-and-a-half bath home located at 6624 Via Como at Villaggio. The 3,570 square-foot (2,740 sq. ft. a/c) Riviera features a two-car garage and a study.

On September 21st, Donna and Stanley Eckstein became the proud owners of a three-bedroom, two-and-a-half bath home located at 6626 Milani Street at Villaggio in Lake Worth. The 3,250 square-foot Perugia, located within the active adult community, is a one-story gem with a two-car garage, spacious family room that opens to a gourmet kitchen and breakfast area, formal living room, dining room, study, screened-in patio and a welcoming foyer beyond the covered entrance to the home.

Villaggio, one of Anasca Home's most successful Palm Beach County active adult communities, is an exclusive and intimate gated enclave of 538 homes, surrounded by lakes, golf courses and plush landscaping. Most noted for its grand, 13,000-square-foot Fitness Club and 35,000-square-foot Social Club, Villaggio offers residents the ultimate recreational yet tranquil lifestyle, situated on more than 11 acres.

Residents of Villaggio have so many options to live an active lifestyle, there is never a dull moment. Villaggio's top-notch amenities include the state-of-the-art fitness center, aerobic/dance studio, six tennis courts with pro shop, steam rooms with showers, full service hair and nail salon, a jogging path, and an indoor heated pool and spa for year-round use. The pool is surrounded by a spacious pool deck for social gatherings, a grand hall equipped with a stage and dance floor for performances and events, an arts and crafts center, three card rooms, a business and Internet center, a billiards room, a putting green, lounge and café, and much more.
